> Today and tomorrow, at the Or pheus theater, the newest World Picture Brady-Made, which bears the title of "The Stolen Paradise," will be the attraction, and this production presents Miss Ethel Clayton in a splendid role. Miss Clayton is supported by Edward Langford and a particularly capable cast. The story told in this drama is an intensely and unusually interesting one. It deals with the marriage of a blind man and a lovable young girl. The man thinks he is marrying an entirely different woman, and so, when his sight is finally restored to him he doesn't know his wife when he sees her. This dramatic situation is splendidly handled by Miss Clayton and Mr. Lang-"The Stolen Paradise" is filled to the brim with exciting incidents and the climax carries a big punch. You will like this production.
